Seattle's Burke-Gilman Trail

Biking the Burke!

Get together at Seattle's Gasworks Park. The address is 2101 N Northlake Way, on the north shore of Lake Union. You'll see the old gasworks boilers. Meet at the free parking lot in front of the park. There are lots of spaces, but in case it's full, there is street parking around the neighborhood.

Meeting Time	Between 11:00 and 11:30
Trail Type	Very easy paved pathway. This trail is multi-use, so stay to the right and watch out for walkers, strollers, dogs, etc. This is an all-ages, all-speeds fun ride -- go your own pace!
Route	Eastbound towards U-Village and beyond.
Food	Bring a backpack lunch for a break during the ride, or stop off at U-Village for QFC sandwiches, Ben and Jerry's, or various restaurants. If you prefer to eat after the ride, there are food stalls at the Fremont Street Market and many restaurants in Fremont.
Bring	Bike, helmet, hydration, eye protection, sun block, windbreaker (if necessary).
